JOB SPECIFICATION

JOB TITLE: Corporate Reporter
REPORTS TO: Singapore Bureau Chief
DIRECT REPORTS: None
DEPARTMENT: Editorial
LOCATION: Singapore preferred
CONTRACT: Permanent, Full-Time – Hybrid Working

COMPANY

Energy Intelligence is an independent provider of energy and geopolitical insights, analysis, data and research. The company’s reputation has been built on uncompromised independent analysis from access to primary sources of information and data. The Information Services, Data Analytics and Research & Advisory teams provide a unique platform and an integrated approach, which equips clients with differentiated value-added services vital to those in the energy industry. With over 70 years of expert energy coverage, Energy Intelligence is the standard to navigating today’s obstacles and taking advantage of tomorrow’s opportunities.

Energy Intelligence has offices in eight locations around the world: London, New York, Washington, Houston, Dubai, Beirut, Singapore and Moscow.

OVERVIEW

Energy Intelligence is looking for a corporate reporter to help grow and improve our coverage of the rapidly changing energy industry in the Asia-Pacific region. This dynamic role includes leading the financial and strategic coverage of the most important oil and gas companies in Southeast Asia and Australia as well as weekly reporting on regional LNG markets. The ideal candidate will show an ability to write about a range of topics and produce strong news stories tight deadlines.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Work collaboratively with the Singapore bureau and other offices to produce exclusive stories and in-depth analysis.
- Write forward-looking news and analysis for daily and weekly publications that will position Energy Intelligence as a leader in strategic and financial information for the energy sector.
- Lead financial and strategic coverage of the largest regional energy companies including national oil companies such as Petronas, Pertamina and PTT as well as a range of Australian independents.
- Develop relationships with LNG market participants to contribute to weekly regional LNG price assessments.
- Lead coverage of key the intersection of the energy and financial sectors

Some Travel Required
You may also be required to carry out any other duties which may reasonably be required of you.
SKILLS/EXPERIENCE

- Excellent writing skills
- The ability to prioritize and deliver daily, weekly and long-term assignments;
- Strong analytical skills to identify and explain key trends;
- A working understanding of corporate financial terminology and concepts;
- A proven track record of primary source reporting and breaking exclusive news
- Strong verbal skills to conduct interview and present information through videos and webinars
- The ability to identify and cultivate new sources at the highest levels of the private and public sector
- Familiarity with the oil and natural gas sector as well as related industries including carbon capture, biofuels and hydrogen preferred
- At least three years journalism experience
- Bachelor’s degree or other relevant professional training/diploma or equivalent experience

This job description is not exhaustive and may be updated to reflect relevant changes in line with business requirements.

Please send your resume and cover letter in confidence to Clara Tan, Singapore Bureau Chief: ctan@energyintel.com

Energy Intelligence is an Equal Opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability or protected veteran status. Energy Intelligence will not discharge or in any manner discriminate against applicants or employees because they have enquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another applicant or employee. Nothing in this job posting should be construed as an offer or guarantee of employment.